Algorithmic Approaches to Augmenting Lesson Slides with Relevant Online Videos

When reviewing lesson slides, students may benefit from additional learning resources in the form of online videos relevant to the concepts discussed in the slides. In this talk, the speaker will share his experiences in developing Slide++, which seeks to discover not only which online videos, but also which snippet within the videos are relevant to each slide.

Collaborative Online International Learning for Tackling Global Challenges

The class on Social Entrepreneurship in the Indo-Pacific brought together 200 students from five universities in Singapore, Australia, Indonesia, and India. This course takes advantage of its online structure to convene student teams across these locations. The theme of international collaboration is reinforced by having students search for innovative responses to global challenges as framed by the sustainable development goals.
